DAILY TRIBUNE. RIGHT, MEDILL & CO. J. C. VAUGHAN, C. H. RAY, EDITORS. The Perhate-What Shall Republicane Bo?

[Defeat, in Itself, may proving benefit to individuals or parties, and, when wisely or practically improved, will always do so. The time, indiced, to show pluck is when dissarter crowds us down and seemingly crushes us. If we heave it off and rise in defance of it, we are men, and will be able to command the sympathics and the confidence of men.

off and rise in denance of it, we are men, and will be able to command the sympathies and the confidence of men.

There were doubtless, immense framis perpetrated at the city election on Tuesday, (and to these we have referred and probably shall refer again), and disabliess, also, base mess were made of means as been as partizans could well employ. But these we might and could have mastered, monsterors as they were, had we stood in right position, and been proported for the occasion. Here lies the difficulty, and we shall be unjust to ourselves, and faithless to our cause in the future, unless we shall overcome it, by a prompt and resolute action. The Anti-Nebraska men, in our judgment, started wrong. However honest the Kaw-Nobling feeling, or whatever may be its patriotic prejudice, or the patent causes which have created anti fed it, it is, in its organization, pro-Slavery in tendency, and, in its adjunction, pro-Slavery in tendency, and, in its philosophy, narrow and wrong. Every more it has made, as a mational body, has worked against the cause of Constitutional Freedom, and was intended so to work, by those who had the control or direction of it. We know that the masses in that party, as in almost every party, are right in Constitutional Freedom, and was intended so to work, by those who had the control or direction of it. We know that the masses in that party, as in almost every party, are right in purpose and in alm, and we desire, with them, to fam into a living flame that Americanism which gave as the Declaration of Independence, as its platform, and the Constitution of the Unios, as its charter of liberty. But the fact as we have stated it, that this order, as such, is hanker and servile in action, and cramped and higostical in creed, is not to be denied; and yet, with this fact known and felt alike by Kopunlicanism and the Intelligent members connected with it, we went into the city election, virtually upon its nominations!

What was to follow, needed no great keenness of intellect to foressee or foretell. For this action gave to the opposition at once its key note and its strength. Who is that opposition talked about Kaosas? In what paper, or in what crowd, on its side, was anti-slavery discussed? The roughest Celt and the rudest partizes, sweer as lastily against Slavery and Slavery extension as the hottest abolitionist could do, while in the cry of Kaos-Nathington was considered as victory to the opposition of a new and a steret political order, not only absorbing thuy the main issue, but concentrating and making intensely active and German Liberal consequently fought side by side, while Scots and Irishmen, helieving in John Knox and the Pope, forgetting their pancient rivalry and hate, labored together, as if contending for life or death. What party, in a city like Chicage, could meet and overcome these difficulties?

But if the start was wrong, the mode of action was more so. The feeling in the city was quickened into full life. It was ready and willing to do, and manifested Reef overrythers in the right way, so far as the Republicans were concerned. Any one who uttended the read may be a single to the continuous congranisatory ageches were the mission. In the continuous intended, and intended the first of contents of emed into full life. It was ready and willing to do, and manifected itself everywhere in the right way, so far as the Republicans were con-cerned. Any one who attended the great meet-ing at Metropolitan Hall will be a wintees to the fact. But what is feeling without a sun-lained edors? What enthusiasm without a fixed purpose ? There was no exposition in our side waterse. This feeling, and that enthusiasm, commonstity was be manifested. selection. This feeling, and that enthusiasm, consequently, were left unguided, as it were without basis—without the means, in short, to make them tell when and where they should have told. Nor was this all, The Nebrashumon were expanied, compactly organized. They thought together, coanselled logether, acted together. Every place had its man, and the man was in it. They started right. Visitally and really, they declared for their party, resolving to make and have a clean issue of it, even if defeat should follow. As they proceeded in the contest, they exemented their strength, and by their very compactness and solidity added day by day to commenced their strength, and of their tery compactness and solidity added day by day to it, until at last they were enabled, by the help of monstrous frauds, to win, when, if the naked lume of Slavery Extension could be put to the Prople of Chicago, they would, be danned politically, by a resolved and overwhelming majority. This was the result of organization. This did the work for the Nebracka men. did the work for the Nebraska men.

30th new for the remedy.

The first step, as it seems to us, is openly and unequivocally, to put ourselves upon a REFULDENT State, and to stand there, let who may threaten or oppose. We cannot—no party can—fight successfully, except it shall have its position and principles well settled and clearly expressed. Any attempt to ignore either—any effort to combine with others hostile, its valid which lasted an hour. Two persons were sounded and some fittle damage done to the hiddent of the latter of the property of the latter of the latter and something more than defeat—the sacrifice of the free section of the future, let us declare our distinct Republican basis and stand upon it, without feat portion of the future, let us declare our distinct Republican basis and stand upon it, without feat refutureing, as the rock of safety for us or for the country.

The second stop, is a monocous onconvirations, when the war is Guardaoupe, and then the Castle fired into Guardaoupe, and then the Cast Board of Foreign Mission.

Alaxy, March 5.

The American Board of Foreign Missions metlest evening, in special session, in this city. Hon. T. Freslinghayson in the chair. Notwithstanding the storm, a large number of delegates were present. The report of the Board to India was partially read, and presented a full exhibition of the practical workings of the mission of the Board. Adjourned till Wednesday. The Board resumed at 9:30 this morning, the reading of the Indian report. It is consemplated to abandon the mission at Madrax, the great aim of the department being to send the gospel to the villages in Southern India.

In regard to the school, it is reported that pupils in the Mahinatia mission, numbered two thousand; in the Ceylon six thousand but they are now decilining.

and so let it be in every city and county, until the Republican party shall be ready for action all over the State. Onaxxxxx one caxxixx, and begin, at once, nor stop until the work shall have been theroughly done.

It is all yain to hope, that we can or shall be able to meet a political for successfully who opposes, as we believe, every interest and every principle which secures the rights of free blow, the accredites of free thought, or the matchity of freedom itself, unless we have the will and the ability to deal strong and continued blows opening it, and for the right. We know their snergy. Their revel songs of victory rang over the city of Chicago on Tuesday night. We saw their procession on Wednesday, and the banners and flags which decorated horses and carriages. We heard the peal of the artillery, and the shouts of mistaken and abused freemen as they answered each peal. We would pit against this energy a higher energy—meet this partizan

It clearly entitled the editor of the Chaos to a place in the Irish procession yester-day, and we wonder that he was not there to all it.

POLICE INTELLIBENCE.—Bilehard Cassand, Patrick Burelay, Patrick Dorsan and Edward Cassandy were engaged in a fight at the Fifth Ward polis, arrested and locked up. Dorsan being the leader was fixed 425, and the other two $10 each.

J. W. Flins and Henry McGraid got into fighting plack, on free whishly sheetind say, and were fixed $10 each.

Thomas Hogan was arrested for tilegal voting, and held to buil for further examination in the sum of $600. Thos. Hoyne, U. S. District Attorney, be coming his security.

Thomas Borne was dued 25 for being drank and residing an officer. He was also sent to the British and residued an officer. ladies we noticed in the procession were communed in one of the rear hacks, and if they were not known to fasse, it surely has not been their fanif.

The rear was brought up by some eight or ten stealing a watch from P. McKay, or 90 Michigan drays and express wagons, filled with dirty, rowdy beys, who, if they contributed nothing else to the Morris Lee was simply drunk, and was fined $3 at the contributed nothing else to the The rear was recognic in the second of the process process. Commercial Affairs. Oreng or the Channe Beste, Passers, J. Company of the Passers, Company of the Passers of the Pas ers all seem interested in and devoted to their duties, and everything indicates a high degree of prosperity and success.

Mr. Dupee, the Principal, is evidently a gentleman of the statuments as a scholar, and well-ditted for a taseber. While he has established and preserves in all departments a good system and order, his classes are delibed with a theoroglumn that would degred it to the heat Academies in the country. Such a teacher is an acquisition to our city, and while admiring the skill by which such interesting classes were formed out of material far from promising, we could not but regret that Mr. Dupee had not more advanced scholars, and a better upportunity for making useful the entiture and archalarship; ty for making useful the culture and schomesopy which is one eminently possesses.

Witness Witn They !—The dark-haptern gentle it emen undertook the job of contesting the election against the Black Democracy, and a pr ty first they made of it. Where were those hundred stalwart K. Na. who were to stand at the 7th Ward polls to see fair play and prevent freudalent voting? Where were the fifty others, to stand by the 7th Ward to challenge illegal votes? Where were the premised carriages, to bring in laggard or infirm citizens? Where, in short, was all that grand and mystic machinery that was to do such wonder? They had everything their own way; had made their own tacket, and taken everything into their own hands. Welwill tell you where. One half of the "Americans" were opposed to nominating a Know Melbing ticket, and so diagnosted at the course of those that did it that they refused to do San's bidding. One fourth weier to the polls and voted, when their courage, like Bob Alkersh; cond out at their fingers in the presence of the gentlemen from Cork, and they stopped quietly home. The other quarter, who were chiefly instrumental in getting up the Know Nothing ticket, voted for Dyer & Co; among the latter, it is reported, was the editor of the Notice Citizes. on P B Berlind georiera.
